I am concerned about access to the town/ from the new proposed development nr the Badger roundabout - safety onto bypass + very busy road to Poole. Also school places should be filled at Spetisbury School as there is access via the railway + surrounding school places should be filled as a priority as these buildings /services are already in place. Any new housing must be of a high quality - please do not turn a beautiful town into legoland. It is not practical to expect people not to use cars in a rural area as any public transport is poor, limited + not suitable →
