Blandford + seem to have many sensible ideas. The passed building plans by Tesco seem to offer no infrastructure for the number of houses built. I find this very worrying as our doctors Surgeries are already struggling - I go to Childs Okeford! The chemists (now all Boots) seem to be struggling, many more mistakes in the last year. The B+ plan for housing and infrastructure off the ring road seems to offer some solutions. To entice these new householders into the town - we would need more parking!

With the influx of so many more people, more reason to keep our hospital - what about a 'drop in' Surgery as some hospitals have in the Hospital

I cannot understand why these houses have been ~~being~~ built without an infrastructure [Tesco] and access out onto two busy roads.
