Reference proposed development in Bryanston by RFE :- Not adverse to new build, it is clear we need new housing nationally but it is more important that the new dwellings should be affordable for local people and young people. As someone who grew up in a village locally, I understand the benefits of having diversity of age within a village community. Applying the market model to everything including housing solutions is clearly not the answer.
